Genesis 48 - 50

Read Genesis 48—50

In Genesis 49, Jacob gathers his sons and speaks prophetically over them of “what shall happen to you in days to come” (49:1). Simeon and Levi notably destroyed the city of Shechem after the rape of Dinah. What consequences do they receive?

Joseph’s brothers panic at the death of their father, fearing that Joseph will lash out against them in revenge. How does an understanding of God’s providence help Joseph to deal with his brothers in Genesis 50:15–21?
