Genesis 22

Read Genesis 22 this week and work through these questions. Some questions are taken from GENESIS: A 12 Week Study by Mitchell Mark

1. A final step of painful obedience is seen in Genesis 22:1–24. “God tested Abraham” (22:1). This sets the tone for the entire chapter, as God calls him to “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you” (22:2). This test is painful, but Abraham obeys immediately. Read through Gen. 22:1–8. How do you see Abraham taking deliberate steps of trusting obedience here? Note the way the covenant promises to Abraham are reiterated in verses 15–18.
2. Do you find yourself having difficulty believing God will provide for your every need? Take some time this week and find some passages in the Bible that relate to God being trustworthy and providing. Write down the references below.
